- In memoriam Staszek Wawrykiewicz [3]

Staszek was an active member of the Polish TeX community, and an incredibly valuable TeX Live Team member.

- Creating an IoT button, the smart way [4]

You press a button and it broadcasts a simple message on 433Mhz. There exist very cheap and reliable 433Mhz receivers which you can connect to an arduino, or ESP8266-based device.

- A review of Virtual Labs virtualization solutions for MOOCs [5]

I've just uploaded a new memo A review of Virtual Labs virtualization solutions for MOOCs in the form of a page on my blog, before I eventually publish something more elaborated (and valued by peer review).
