CentOS Stream and 8 have quite a bit for us to talk about, Docker's struggles go public, and the GNOME Foundation is facing a patent fight.

Plus the best bit of Android 10 Go, Microsoft gives serious thought to bringing Edge to Linux, and Stallman's role at GNU comes into question.

- GNU World Order 13x40 [3]

Is an open source operating system important?

- Open Source Security Podcast: Episode 163 - Death to python 2 [4]

Josh and Kurt about the upcoming Python 2 EOL. What does it mean, why does it matter, and what you can you do?
