A few folk were worried Ubuntu might not ship GNOME 40 at all in its upcoming release, but today's batch of impish-proposed updates allay those fears completely.

GNOME 40 itself has been covered extensively on this blog (and plenty of others). So if you're not familiar with it I do wonder where you've been! The key thing to know is that GNOME 40 introduces a new layout.

The first time you login to Ubuntu 21.10 you're greeted by this screen...
