Ubuntu Restaurant and Yoga Studio is on track to open in mid-August on Main Street. According to a press release, ubuntu means "humanity toward others," the world view that is the basis of this community-focused restaurant and yoga studio.

Ubuntu owner, Sandy Lawrence, her team of architects, Michael Bauschke and David Berman, designer T Beller and restaurant consultant Michael Dellar, share the vision of a neighborhood restaurant that sources the majority of its food locally to serving vegetable inspired meals, innovative cuisine for both omnivores and herbivores.
