If anyone noticed the site not being updated today it was due to a hardware failure. I've been getting warning signs from my motherboard for a while and it finally gave up the ghost today.

If anyone has an abandoned amd_64 agp motherboard they ain't using no more, I'd appreciate the donation.

If anyone is interested in sending me one, you can Email me [1] for shipping address.

Also, of course monetary donations will be gladly accepted.

Thanks,
srlinuxx
