It's that time of the year again. There's snow on the ground, you've got your holiday shopping done (right?), and everybody's in a festive mood. Personally, I'm looking forward to kicking back with the family and watching Christmas Vacation, as well as catching some holiday bowl games.

One of the things you might have done to prepare for Christmas was decorate your house. You've got your fancy lights on display outside, your tree decorated in the living room, and stockings hung neatly over your fireplace. What else is left to do? How about decorating your desktop?

In this article, I'll show you a few of the best resources for finding Christmas wallpaper for your desktop.
