A bad thunderstorm is rolling in. Anyone wanna bet me how long before the lights go out?

Yep, there go the tornado warning sirens...

Update: Still here, still have lights for now. Another smaller storm not too far away headed this way tho.

Update 2: Holy cow, there's a big line of storms coming right for me. Go look at the weather channel. I'm in Clarksville, TN. It's a line of storms longer than the height of the state. They say it'll be a rough night and on and off tomorrow. I'm fairly sure the site will be going down.
