A few weeks back when we did our list on the Top 10 Reasons to Switch to Windows, we were taken to task by a commenter for being too hard on the Microsofties. Well, as Three Dog Night said a long, long time ago, when it comes to Redmond, we find it "easy to be hard." Anyway, this week, we're taking that commenter's advice and, in the interest of equal time, we're going after our own kind, Penguinistas.

So, here it is, just to prove that we don't always pick on Windows, ten things that Linux users don't understand.

10. "This program has performed an illegal operation and will be shut down."
