Hi all.

I have a little page issue for you to look at on here.

If I go to Forum > Topics > Others and then scroll to the bottom and select either next or go to page 2 it doesn't quite look right.

I see the header for what should be page 2 but no content. That's OK if there is not enough content for a page 2 but then I see the latest news headlines.

It looks like a user has been chucked out of the forum back to the front\news pages.

Only a cosmetic comment.

Keep up the great work. Really don't know how you all find the time.

Regards Ray
