

Commonly used commands in SSH

By srlinuxx

Created 26/05/2006 - 2:06pm

Submitted by srlinuxx on Friday 26th of May 2006 02:06:34 PM Filed under HowTos [1]

ls -l === This Will List All Files/Directories In Your Current Directory
ls -al === Lists All Files & Information
ls -alR === Lists All Files & Information In All SubDirectories
cd === Changes Directory
clear === Clears The Screen
cp [oldfilepath] [newfilepath] === Copies File From A Directory->Another cp -r [oldpath] [newpath] === Copy folders
rm [filepath] === Removes A File
rm * === Removes All Files In A Directory
rm -rf [directory-name] === Removes all files AND subdirectories
mkdir [dirname] === Creates A New Directory

Commonly used commands in SSH [2].

HowTos

Source URL: <http://www.tuxmachines.org/node/7169>

Links:

[1] <http://www.tuxmachines.org/taxonomy/term/98>

[2] <http://spellbook.infinitiv.it/archives/11>