[2]Can?t tell you how we got our hands on this image, but what you?re looking at is a real live shot of the Xbox 360 that someone sneakily snapped with their cameraphone at Microsoft?s Xbox360 Revealed launch party in Los Angeles last night. Also note the presence of a hard drive attachment up top, the white controller, the Xbox Live headset, and what looks like that EyeToy-like camera peripheral we?ve been hearing about.
